Testimonials

It is with pleasure that I write this review for Inna, Founder of InnaVative Real Estate Inc. I have been honored to not only practice Real Estate with her, but also have learned so much from her about Rent to Own. Her Rent to Own Program takes a client first approach. It is the understanding that there are motivated people out there that have just run into a roadblock for whatever reason. Inna and her Team address all such situations creating a win-win for both parties, but more importantly, assisting individuals and families to become home owners. Inna is a true professional who prioritizes to her clients' needs and I have no doubt about her continued success.
